NOTICE TO BIDDERS ON THE NEW HAMPSHIRE MAIL ROUTES.

Post Office Department,
April 12, 1845.

A N error has occurred in the printing of the advertisement for proposals for carrying the mail to ur oute No. 211.

The schedule was drawn up specifying 8 p. m. as the hour of departure from Lebanon, and 6 a. m. the next day as the hour of arrival at Concord; but the printed advertisements give the departure and arrival at different hours, and so as to prevent connection with depending mails.

The bidders are notified that the mail is to leave techanon at 8 p. m., and arrive at Concord next day by 6 a. m.; and they will make their proposals accordingly. The bids should come in by 9 o'clock, a. m. on the 15th instant.

5 PER CENT. STORE, NEW YORK.—The subscribers take this method of calling the attention of cash merchants to their advantageous system of doing business, and of soliciting the future patronage of their old customers. To CASH drygoods merchants visiting New York, our plan offers the greatest inducements. The cost of each article is marked in figures upon it, and a commission of only five per cent. added at the foot of the bill. We are daily receiving DRY GOODS of all descriptions from auction; and to the buyer we guaranty a saving of from ten to fifteen per cent. from the prices of the old credit system.

Washington, Nov. 23, 1844.

Ma. C. Heastons: Dyspepsia.—This disease I had for some years to an alarming degree. Your Dyspeptic Cordial deserves more than a pessing notice from me. My case was of the most distressing nature, and the conflict between my stomach and food was often severe, the stomach loathing the food, and time after time throwing it up—frequently with pain. Add to this greatly depressed spirits, with debility, nerves weakened, reatless nights, frequent starting with unpleasant dreams. To describe my situation is difficult. Physicians were consulted, various medicines tried, but nothing met my case intil I met with your Ohio medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn, and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial. Soon after using it my disordered stomach became soothed. I continued the medince—a perfect cure has been effected—my health is now good and has been for more than a year. I can now use any article of diet without any inconvenience. In my case this valuable medicine is incontestable. My case is well known to the Rev. J. M. Hanson, having been associated with him, in the same room, for some years, in the General Post Office.
